

BLUE AND GRAY
FRATERNIZERemarkable Feature at the
G. A. R. Encampment

OPENED AT ATLANTIC CITY

It Is Even Said That There May Be
Union of the Survivors of the Civil War—Formal Session
Started To-day.

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 19.—The 44th national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic was opened here to-day. The conspicuous feature was the fraternal spirit exhibited between the southern soldiers, who are visiting the encampment, and the veterans of the "blue." It is believed that a merger may be effected between the G. A. R. and the similar organization of southern survivors. The annual parade is scheduled for Tuesday.

Five thousand veterans gathered in the Savoy theatre yesterday morning and listened to a patriotic sermon delivered by the Rev. Robert A. Elwood, chaplain of the department of Pennsylvania. The Philadelphia brigade survivors reached here yesterday and reviewed the Gettysburg post of Boston, which arrived on a later train. The Philadelphia then escorted the New Englanders to their hotel.

Commander-in-Chief Van Sant, Hilary A. Herbert of Alabama, former secretary of the navy and a general in the Confederate army, and Gen. Daniel E. Sickles were the principal speakers at a large gathering of veterans on the steps of the Pennsylvania hotel yesterday afternoon. A remarkable scene occurred with the entrance of General Sickles into the auditorium. As he swung down the aisle with a plumed-up trooper leg, the veterans arose as one man and four of his command lifted him, chair and all, and placed him on the platform while the commander-in-chief's hand played "Dixie" and the crowd cheered.

As General Sickles grasped the folds of a huge silk flag with Commander Van Sant, General Herbert stepped up and laying one hand on the shoulder of the grizzled veteran and the other on the flag, said: "Had I been told when I was in Antietam that in the years to come I would stand side by side with federal soldiers and grasp the Stars and Stripes with them, I would have been incited. But I love that old flag now."

MOST DANGEROUS FLIGHT.

Aviators Begin Trans-Alpine Trip To-day—Will Fly Over Simple Pass.

Brieg, Switzerland, Sept. 19.—A trans-Alpine flight from Brieg to Milan was begun to-day by Weymann, an American, and Chavez, a Peruvian, who will fly over Simple pass, a height of 6,700 feet. At the start, a fierce gale forced the aviators to descend, but within two hours the wind had subsided and they started again. The flight is believed to be the most dangerous ever attempted.

FURTHER TESTIMONY
AGAINST CRIPPENFriend Said Mrs. Crippen Had Scar Similar to One on Body Found—Neighbor Testified Doctor Wanted to Get Divorce.

London, Sept. 19.—Proof that Belle Elmore Crippen had a scar similar to that on the body found in the cellar of the Crippen home was given at the assumption of the inquest to-day by Mrs. Eugene Stratton, a friend of Belle Elmore. She said Mrs. Crippen underwent an operation and had a similar scar. Inspector Dew repeated much of his police court testimony. The desire to marry Ethel Clara Leneve is established as the motive for Crippen to murder his wife. Mrs. Emily Jackson, a neighbor, testified that Miss Leneve told her several weeks before the wife's disappearance that she and the doctor were "only waiting for Mrs. Crippen to make good her threat to leave her husband, so the doctor could get a divorce." After the divorce, Mrs. Leneve said, she and the doctor were to be married.

WENT THROUGH RAPIDS
IN A MOTOR BOATCaptain Klaus Larsen Was First Threatened with Arrest for Attempting to Commit Suicide.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Captain Klaus Larsen in his little motor boat The Ferro, late yesterday afternoon made a successful trip from the foot of the cataract through the Whirlpool rapids to within a mile of Lewiston, a distance of four and one-half miles. He started from the Maid of the Mist dock at 4:45 and ran on a rock near the American shore at 5:30.

Despite the battering of the Whirlpool rapids, Larsen went through safely, but his boat was leaking badly at the finish and through the trip. Larsen had intended to start at 2:30 o'clock, but he was delayed by engine trouble. Besides, the authorities threatened to interfere on the ground of attempted suicide.

The Ferro swung under the cantilever bridge, the engine running at top speed, and was caught in the swift drift break of water to the Whirlpool rapids. Larsen held to the middle of the channel and in less than three minutes had made the great pool. In the trip through the rapids, the little boat was lost to sight most of the time, but at great Wave it was shot 20 feet out of water. The boat landed right and continued to the pool.

Larsen kept to the outer edge of the pool and passed out and down without accident. Just as he left the pool, the engine stopped working and Larsen was at the mercy of waters hardly less violent than those above. The little boat swung around stern first and then turned completely over, Larsen coming up badly battered. It was here that he injured his leg.

From now on, Larsen was the plaything of the mighty river, unable to hold the course, the boat swinging from one side to the other. After getting through the Devil's hole, The Ferro swung toward the rocks on the American side of the river, rolled over one boulder and went fast between two others. There Larsen stayed for five minutes, 45 feet from the craft. Getting free, he was hit by a comb and sent careening toward the middle. At the bend, with the Lewiston bridge in sight, the boat drifted toward the American side again and was then caught in the shore eddy. The Ferro grounded again, this time near enough to shore to be caught by Roy Rockwell of this city, who waded into the water and caught a rope thrown by Larsen.

Larsen wanted to continue the trip, but having accomplished the worst part of the journey he was persuaded to board a trolley to Lewiston, setting the boat adrift. "The trip was worse than I thought it would be," said Larsen, "but I am not hurt, and I will do it again some time with another boat. My leg was jammed when she tipped over, but that's all. The engine worked fine through the rapids, and I would have made the trip in half an hour if it hadn't stopped after leaving the whirlpool."

SWAM 17 MILES.

Rose Pitonoff of Boston Surprised New York People Yesterday.

New York, Sept. 19.—Starting from the New York yacht club pier at Twenty-third street and the East River yesterday, Rose Pitonoff, a 16-year-old girl of Boston, swam down the river, through the bay and rounding Norton's point finished at Coney Island, a distance of about 17 miles. Miss Pitonoff finished five minutes behind Miss Pitonoff, whose time was five hours and six minutes. The time made by both Miss Pitonoff and Mrs. Bouton is said to be a record for the Coney Island swim, bettering even that made by men. Miss Pitonoff sprang into prominence some time ago as an aquatic marvel by swimming from the Charlestown bridge to the Boston harbor light, 12 and one-half miles. In the swim yesterday both young women finished strong.

WON'T ACCEPT CHANLER
FAMILY'S PROPOSITIONLina Cavallieri Will Insist Upon Rights
As Given In Pre-nuptial Agreement—Family Would Settle

Paris, Sept. 19.—Lina Cavallieri said to-day that the Chanler family would have trouble by not submitting the proposition for $10,000 down and $5,000 annually for the surrender of the ante-nuptial agreement, declaring that she would not accept the offer. "If I have any rights under the agreement," said the girl, "I shall insist upon them. If I have none, I do not wish to profit from the family. I believe my husband is not a party to the offer. He made the agreement with his eyes wide open and I believe he will carry out his stipulation as far as possible."

MISTAKEN FOR BURGLAR.

Anna Cole Was Shot at Uniontown, Pa.,

Uniontown, Pa., Sept. 19.—Anna Cole was mistaken for a burglar and perhaps fatally shot by her friend and neighbor, Charles Kindred, early yesterday. One of the bullets entered the girl's abdomen and it is doubtful if she recovers.

M'LANE DIED
AT HOSPITALResult of Injury on Revolving
Platform at Revere

SON OF AN EX-GOVERNOR

A Milford, Mass., Man Hurt Saturday by Fall on His Head Died This Morning in Hospital in Boston.

Boston, Sept. 19.—Charles M. McLane of Milford, N. H., son of ex-Governor McLane of New Hampshire, who was injured in an accident at Revere yesterday, died at the Massachusetts general hospital this morning. He was thrown off a revolving platform, striking on his head.

Young McLane was visiting Edward Ellingsworth at his home at 1322 Commonwealth avenue, and Saturday afternoon the two made a trip to Revere beach. While taking in the attractions there, McLane stepped on the revolving platform and was thrown off. He was examined by physicians, who stated that he was all right. The two then returned to the Ellingsworth home. Yesterday afternoon McLane complained of not feeling well and expressed a desire to go home. Therefore he and his brother, Clinton, and Miss Ellingsworth started off.

Their automobile had not gone far when the sick man was seized with convulsions and then lapsed into unconsciousness. The machine was turned around and run back to the police station in Arlington Center. Chief of police Urquhart and Dr. Harold A. Webb culled the automobile, and the injured man was rushed to the hospital. Dr. Webb said that a hemorrhage of the brain had occurred.

Ex-Governor and Mrs. McLane had started for Detroit, and word of the accident was telegraphed ahead yesterday afternoon.

Revere, Mass., Sept. 19.—The proprietor of the amusement place where Charles M. McLane is said to have been injured Saturday afternoon, stated last night that he had not heard of the accident. In making his usual questions of the physician stationed there he was told that an unknown young man had bumped his head in stumbling on one of the amusement machines, but that the injury had not been thought serious.

WOMAN ARRESTED
ON MURDER CHARGEWilliam Heath Shot at Lunenburg and Mrs. Marshall Dodge Has Been Arrested—Shooting Took Place Saturday.

Lunenburg, Sept. 19.—William Heath, painter from Dalton, N. H., was shot through the heart and instantly killed while working on the premises of Mrs. Marshall Dodge Saturday. Mrs. Dodge, who is quite wealthy and prominent socially, has been arrested and will be given a preliminary hearing on the charge of murder before Justice Kyle Brown to-day.

Heath was painting in the bedroom of the Dodge house when killed. At 11:50 a. m., the neighbors heard three shots and Mrs. Dodge shortly thereafter rushed out of the house, crying that the man had committed suicide. She said that she was working in the kitchen when the shots were fired and that she tried to give him some whiskey but did not succeed in making him swallow it. There were no witnesses to the tragedy.

Mrs. Dodge was placed under arrest by the local officers and State's Attorney G. L. Hunt of Island Pond was summoned. Yesterday afternoon an autopsy was performed by Drs. B. H. Stone and G. H. Dalton of Burlington. J. G. Brieling of this town and Ernest Palmer of New York. They found that Heath could not possibly have shot himself in the manner indicated by the course of the bullet, which had entered at the back, passed through the heart and lodged in the front of his shirt. It was also found that the other two bullets fired had grazed the threshold of the bedroom and lodged in the walls opposite the kitchen door. The shots were fired from a revolver owned by Mrs. Dodge.

The cause of the tragedy is unknown. Heath painted the outside of the Dodge house about three weeks ago and it is understood that at that time he had a disagreement with Mrs. Dodge regarding the price. Later she paid him and he returned to paint the interior of the house. The dead man was about 40 years old and leaves a wife and daughter. Mrs. Dodge is a widow of about 50 years.

GOOD-SIZED CLASS EXPECTED.

At the University of Vermont, Which Opens Next Week.

Burlington, Sept. 19.—There are indications of a good-sized entering class at the university of Vermont this year. The entrance examinations will start on Friday and college will open on Wednesday of next week. The entrance requirements are becoming more strict each year, and more students than usual are being required to take examinations, rather than entering on certificates.

Among the changes in the faculty are the following:
Prof. W. L. Upson, who will take the place recently vacated by Professor Freedman as head of the department of electrical engineering, has already arrived and settled with his family at 178 South Prospect street. TAFT AND ROOSEVELT CONFER.

Will Talk Over Politics This Afternoon at New Haven.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 19.—President Taft will confer late this afternoon regarding politics with Colonel Theodore Roosevelt. Secretary Norton would not confirm the report until advised that Roosevelt had left Oyster Bay.

Slipping quietly over in his motor boat from Oyster Bay to Black Rock and thence by motor boat to New Haven, Colonel Roosevelt arrived this afternoon with Lloyd C. Griscom of New York at a desolate spot near town and was met by Secretary Norton with an ex-ambassador, Theodore T. Taft, and Otto Bannard, former Republican majority candidate in New York, lunched at the home of Henry C. White, a friend of President Hadley of Yale. Ostensibly, the gathering is for the discussion of New York state politics, but it is hinted that the president and ex-president will exchange views on the national situation. This is the first political talk the two have had since Roosevelt's return, their Beverly meeting being devoted to personal reminiscences. That the request for the conference should have come from Colonel Roosevelt, through Bannard and Griscom, is regarded as of the utmost significance, and in view of Roosevelt's recent utterances to support certain Taft policies, politicians profess to see a desire on the part of Roosevelt to make his peace with Taft. All sorts of rumors are about, but none of the participants in the conference could be seen.

WOMAN JUMPED INTO LAKE

After Altercation in Burlington, She Was Pulled Out.

Burlington, Sept. 19.—Saturday afternoon a man and a woman, both evidently Syrians, were seen to be in violent controversy at the water's edge near the pumping station. A nearby workman watched their gestures with mild curiosity, but was not near enough to hear the conversation. Suddenly, without any great interference on the part of her companion, the woman threw herself into the lake. The workman rushed forward, expecting to see her sink at once, and seized a rope which was fortunately near at hand. To his surprise the woman floated. He lassoed and pulled her to shore. The secret of her unsuccessful attempt at suicide was the voluminousness of her clothing. She seemed to wear several good sized bedrobes and the buoyancy of the cloth kept her from sinking. She was able to walk away with her companion.

SNAKE IN MAIL BAG.

Made Woman Postmaster and Woman
Assistant Run.

Butler, Pa., Sept. 19.—It became known yesterday that for three weeks the federal government has been on the trail of a snake. Post office inspector Craighead of Pittsburgh has been assigned to the case, upon complaint of Miss Winifred Turk, postmistress at Hilliard, that she found the reptile, three feet long, in a sack which was thrown off the train here. Both Miss Turk and her young woman assistant fled from the post office at the discovery, but later the postmistress returned and killed the intruder.

Railway postal clerks examined declare their innocence and say the reptile must have crawled into the bag while it lay on the station platform.

NO LENIENCY
FOR HEIKEJudge Martin Orders Him to Jail For 8 Months

WITH A FINE OF $5,000 ALSO

Former Secretary and Treasurer of Sugar Trust Was Bitterly Disappointed over Sentence Imposed on Him To-day.

New York, Sept. 19.—Charles R. Heike, formerly secretary and treasurer of the sugar trust, was sentenced to-day to eight months at Blackwell's island and fined $5,000 by Judge J. L. Martin of the federal court for defrauding the government in sugar weight fraud. Judge Martin then granted a stay of sentence pending an appeal. Bail was fixed at $15,000.

In pronouncing sentence, Judge Martin said that in view of the age and reputable past life of Heike he would like to be lenient but because of the enormity of the offense and the fact that the prisoner had guilty knowledge of underweighting, he must give him a prison sentence. Heike was bitterly disappointed, anticipating a fine only.

LEON (PICKET) COBURN
IN TROUBLE AGAINMontpelier Young Man Said to Have Traded Horse Flesh Not His Own at a Boot of $10—He Is Placed Under $500 Bail.

Leon Coburn, better known as "Picket," was arraigned in Montpelier city court this forenoon on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and was held in $500 bonds for a continuance of one week.

Ellis Henry and Charles Martin of South Barre went to Montpelier Saturday night, driving a pair of horses, one of the pair belonging to each of the men, and they had decided that, if they had a good opportunity, they would trade horses. They drove in back of the Blanchard block, where farmers are apt to congregate and hitch their horses, thinking there might be a chance there to pull off the trade. It so happened that Henry Carr of Berlin also drove his team in back of the block to hitch, and then left it to go into Brooks' store to trade.

When the South Barre men arrived, Coburn was standing near the Carr horse and asked Mr. Henry and Mr. Martin if they would trade horses. A price was settled on, and the men started to change the horses, when Mr. Carr came out. When the true nature of the case was learned, the police were notified and Coburn was arrested. It is said that Coburn had agreed to swap with $10 to boot, after being beaten down from his original demand for $25 to boot.

MANUFACTURED BROKEN ARM

Easy.

Rutland, Sept. 19.—William Pendergrass of Weymouth, spring a new one in the city court Saturday. When arrested Friday night for drunkenness, Pendergrass had two good arms, but when he was arraigned the following morning, one of his arms hung in a sling.

He had been released from the city house of correction only the day before his arrest, after serving 10 days on an intoxication charge and when Judge Swinerton remarked that he was traveling a rather fast pace, Pendergrass stated that he was sick and in great pain, owing to his broken arm. He asked the judge to go easy with him, but the time didn't work and he was given 60 days in jail. He had manufactured his sling by tearing up his shirt.

PREPARATION MADE
FOR VERMONT STATE FAIRIt Will Open at White River Junction
To-morrow with a Monster Barbecue—A Big Crowd Is Expected.

White River Junction, Sept. 19.—Preparations for the opening of the Vermont state fair are being vigorously pushed by those having the matter in charge. Already many carloads of stock have arrived and been located in the pens and stalls. Several of the trotting horses are already here and are being tried out on the track, which at present is in excellent condition.

The famous diving horses, King and Queen, are on the grounds, the tank into which they are to dive is filled with water, and the elevated platform erected. These equines are truly beautiful and intelligent, and one has only to see them to admire them.

The poultry sheds, over which R. S. Currier of Barre will preside as superintendent, are rapidly filling up. Even at this early date, it is evident that this will be one of the greatest exhibitions of poultry ever given in New England. The election of Mr. Currier as superintendent is in itself a guarantee that all exhibitors will be given just and fair treatment. Even last evening the noise of cocks crowing and ducks quacking made that section of the grounds seem as if the fair were already in progress.

As yet, it is too early to give any particular entry special notice, but the exhibit of stock cattle, now on the grounds, has some most magnificent ones. The superintendent of this department expresses the belief that the exhibit of extra fine animals will be one of the best ever on the grounds.

The barbecue is being arranged for, the excavation for the roasting is all ready, the large roasting pan in position, fuel on the ground, and the ox now in cold storage, goes to the pen this morning and will be all ready for the multitude Tuesday noon.

The management is straining every nerve and doing everything possible to make this the best fair of any ever held in the state. As there is no large fair in western New Hampshire, this fall, many exhibits are being brought from that state, which under other conditions would not be brought here. There also is a good indication that there will be a large attendance from that state.

Not only have the grounds been put in good shape as regards the fair, but the highway leading to the grounds has been altered and improved, so that reaching the fair ground by conveyance or on foot is much easier than in previous years. This road has received a dressing of oil, from the village to the grounds, so that the pedestrian will not have to eat the dust of passing vehicles. The grass has been improved and lowered, so that now it is but a gentle incline to the summit.

The secretary and his assistants, the superintendents of the several departments and all lesser officers are very busy in their respective offices. Several newspaper men are in town, with assignments to give full reports of the fair. Many of the buildings are receiving finishing touches before the opening tomorrow.

WYLLIE-COYNE.

Wedding at St. Monica's Church This Morning.

A pretty wedding took place at St. Monica's church at 8 o'clock this morning, when Miss Mary Josephine Coyne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick M. Coyne of 94 Summer street, and David L. Wyllie were united in marriage by Rev. Father LaFontaine. The couple were attended by William J. Coyne, a sister of the bride, and James Gallagher, Katherine Coyne and Dorothy Wyllie were the flower girls. During the ceremony Mrs. Callaghan presided at the organ, and James Coyne, a brother of the bride, played the violin. The bride wore a gown of pale blue satin and a built, as cashier and billing clerk. He was before that time employed in the freight office of the Central Vermont railroad in this city.

BAKE A BIG SUCCESS.

Big Crowd Enjoyed the Viands at Bowers' Annual Affair.

The R. C. Bowers company clambake at Fountain park, Saturday afternoon, was attended by upwards of 400 men, who pronounced the bake one of the best in the series of seventeen which this company has given. The guests included granite manufacturers, polishers and others of Barre and Montpelier, and they one and all were loud in their praise of the quality of the viands sent before them. The big Bowers' tent was filled with hungry people sitting before seven tables.

Clam chowder, steamed clams, lobster, sweet potatoes, green corn, watermelon and ginger ale, ending with a smoke from gift pipes passed around by the host, together with tobacco, constituted this splendid repast. In order to serve them all, fifteen bushels of clams, two barrels of lobsters, 45 gallons of chowder, 450 ears of corn, a barrel of sweet potatoes and a hundred watermelons were used.

After the banquet there were two unexpected features. The host, when James R. Bates of Montpelier presented Mr. Bowers a handsome diamond ring from granite men in both cities and also when E. A. Bugbee of Barre tendered him a diamond stickpin from the executive committee, which had charge of the recent barbecue of the Barre Granite Manufacturers' association. Although this was a decided surprise to Mr. Bowers, he managed to express his thanks for the gifts.

FIGHT BEGINS
FOR THE SEATBarre Town Contested Election Case Started To-day

ONE WITNESS WAS HEARD

Election of W. E. Fisk as Representative
Is Being Contested by William Earle and Dr. C. N. Barber—Constable
Cutler Testifies.

A hearing on the contested election case in Barre town, in which William Earle and Dr. C. N. Barber contest the right of William E. Fisk to sit in the coming legislature, was started in Miles hall, Graniteville, to-day, before Judge H. W. Scott of this city, acting as a justice of the peace. Only one witness was heard, constable W. F. Cutler, who by virtue of his office was presiding officer at the election; and then adjournment was taken until to-morrow afternoon.

Mr. Fisk was represented by Richard A. Hoar, while S. Hollister Jackson appeared for Mr. Earle and E. L. Scott for Dr. Barber. The law requires that notice of contest must be served on the representative-elect within six days. After the proof of service in Mr. Earle's case had been presented, constable Cutler went on the stand and was sworn.

Mr. Cutler testified that he was the presiding officer at the central polling place, or at East Barre. His deposition was taken up, the story running through the various ballots. He testified that before the eighth ballot was taken he announced at the East Barre precinct and sent word to the other precincts that the eighth ballot would be turned at 8 o'clock that evening, and that the boxes would be turned at the end of each hour thereafter until someone was elected. He said that the tenth ballot was closed in Graniteville at 11 p. m., in East Barre at 11:30, and that he got telephone notification from South Barre that the ballot box was to remain open until 10 a. m. the next day.

The following day, Thursday, he was in East Barre and town clerk W. H. Miles telephoned him the result of the counting of the tenth ballot in South Barre. Mr. Cutler testified that he didn't declare any election, as there was no one around the polling station in East Barre. Following that, the hearing was adjourned until 2 o'clock to-morrow afternoon at the same place.
